A VIOLATION OF LIQUOR LAW CHARGED

A few hours before he was to go on trial in criminal court at Greensburg on a charge of violating the liquor laws, Joseph Cestello, aged 37, [illegible] Place, in Latrobe, fired two bullets into his brain at his home today.

Joe's place was raided last December by the state police, and securing a quantity of liquor, Cestillo was placed under arrest. He furnished bond for his appearance at court. The case [illegible] was postponed until today. While in the court room yesterday, Joe was extremely nervous.

This morning he arose early and informed his wife that he was going to Greensburg, and kissing his wife and five children good-bye he went downstairs. That was the last time his family saw him alive, for shortly afterward he killed himself. Two patrons came into the bar-room and not finding Joe about, looked around and found his body lying in a rear room with the bullet wound in his head and the revolver lying at his side.

FRANCE'S CAREER IS SERIOUS

Paris, Feb. 5—(United Press)—The condition of the famous French novelist, Anatole France, ill for several weeks, became suddenly worse today.

Professor Laubry, a heart specialist, was summoned urgently to the writer's bedside.

Later, however, France's household stated that he had recovered from a severe inflammation of the chest, and was able to breakfast.

Fifty of the 78 constables of the county made their quarterly returns before Judge Erwin Cummins yesterday morning.

The court, in receiving the returns, briefly addressed the officers on their duties. He told them that law enforcement in the county was largely in their hands, and that the court looked to them to do their duty along that line. He reminded them that were not only officers of the districts in which they were elected, but also officers of the county, and could make prosecutions any place within the county. He urged them to cooperate and assist each other in seeing to it that the laws of the commonwealth are enforced. He also said that there should be no jealousy between constables and police officers, but that they should work together, pointing out that police officers were in duty bound to make prosecutions in their districts. He assured them that the court would stand back of all officers who did their duty and made sincere effort to secure enforcement of law in the county.

THE WORKERS ARE HUSTLING

The meeting held in the Municipal building last night of the committees to push the Harding Memorial fund drive was attended by about 50 percent of the committees as announced in the Mail. The session was full of enthusiasm however, and the workers are hustling in the interests of the fund.

Money for the cause can be left at any of the local banks, with Postmaster Hill at the postoffice, or handed to any one of the members of the committees. If you are not called upon do not feel "slighted;" any member of the committees named in this paper will be glad to have you look them up; or you can leave your contribution at any of the banks or postoffice, as suggested.

Postmaster Hill said this morning that it is hoped to "go over the top" in the drive this week.

GRIEF TO BE SILENT FOR DEAD

Washington, February 5—(United Press—From the same devotional book which Woodrow Wilson read every night as he communed with God before going to sleep, will be read tomorrow as his body is committed to dust, his soul to eternity.

This book thumbed and worn by constant use is a small volume, containing scriptural passages with applications and interpretations from its pages. Bishop James E. Freeman tomorrow will read some of the same passages which strengthened and comforted Mr. Wilson during the trying hours as president and his long seclusion as an invalid.

The detailed program of the funeral services made public today show simplicity to be the keynote.

WELSH SINGERS ARE HERE ON TOMORROW

The Royal Welsh Singers will be in Charleroi tomorrow evening and at the Charleroi High School auditorium will present a program of music that will delight the large audience that, according to the large number of tickets sold, will turn out to greet them. There are four talented entertainers in the company, who have appeared in large cities of the United States and loud has been their praise wherever they have appeared.

The voice of D. Edgar Davies, the Welsh baritone, is an admirable example of the [illegible] clear tone with heavy diaphragmatic reinforcement which combination results in a tone of unusual power, depth and clearness.

Miss Gladys Smith, the reader and soprano, will captivate her audience as she has numerous times before, by her splendid personality and charm. While she depends on her readings for her success, she has a clear soprano voice which is very pleasing.

G. G. Hotchkiss possesses a very pleasing tenor voice, and gives a good example of the Italiano singing. His voice is natural and produced with ease and is best planted to lyric passages.

Ernest Hales, accompanist shows an unusual amount of technique for so youthful an aspirant. His talent is unquestioned. He incidentally reveals a fine tenor voice in the ensemble work, and he is a young man of unusual ability.

Tickets are on sale at Might's Book Store, Piper's Drug Store, and will be sold at the auditorium. No seats will be reserved, but no more tickets will be sold than there are seats in the auditorium.

Colored Ruffian Cuts "Katsy" Keifer, Pitcher; Believe He Will Recover

Although still in a critical condition, the many friends of Sherman, "Katsy" Keifer, noted baseball player and World War veteran, will be pleased to learn of his convalescence from an illness which might have proved fatal, caused by a deep gash inflicted across his throat Tuesday, January 22, while in Washington, D. According to the story told by "Katsy," who was brought to the home of his brother, Ben Keifer, 637 Fallowfield avenue, on Monday, January 28, from the Emergency hospital, Washington, in a serious condition, he was spending the winter months in that city, and while there was conducting a business establishment in partnership with one Judas Rudden. On the afternoon of the near tragedy, Tuesday, February 22, "Katsy" was [illegible] burg, Virginia, on a flying business trip and at 2:25 o'clock was closing the shop. All the patrons had left the place with the exception of two colored men, Charley Pierce and Fred Douglas, whom "Katsy" believes intended to rob him, as he was emptying the contents of the cash register, $73.85, before leaving. As he was busy counting the money, one of the two colored men, Pierce, asked "Katsy"

THE DEAD CHIEFTAIN

Following within a year the death of President Harding the passing of former president Woodrow Wilson again casts the nation in grief

Woodrow Wilson was a man of positive opinion, and high intellectual qualifications. Whether he was possessed of the leadership qualifications of Abraham Lincoln, is a matter which men will argue without arriving at a decision. Certainly it was his to be placed in a position as a war president similar to that of the martyred Lincoln That he was intensely patriotic and imbued with a desire to serve only the best interests of his country, is indisputable. The perspective of time is necessary to properly estimate his services to his country.

Woodrow Wilson did his duty as he saw it as president of the United States, and only took us into war when no other course was honorable Now that he is dead—immolated his life in behalf of the country that gave him birth, it is ours to see the man, and not the president His was the loyal, religious spirit that sought to do right, thinking of his country first and self afterwards His name will go down in history as a president who reigned when the mailed pall of autocracy threatened world dismemberment, and by his official authority, aided by congress, democracy triumphed. It took the machations of time to correctly measure the achievements of Abraham Lincoln; Woodrow Wilson may be an even greater man in the years to come than we ascribe for him today. At all events he was a brilliant scholar and 100 percent patriot, and whether you credit to him the leadership qualifications of some of his predecessors, it can be said of him that he was a truly great man, a man of letters, and the possessor of a character that was unimpeachable

OIL INQUIRY IS OUT FOR EVIDENCE

Washington, February 5.—(United Press).—The Senate oil inquiry reached out for new sensational evidence today when it began tracing a list of names of high government officials reported to have "cleaned up" in stock transactions.

The list includes a former White House official, a Senator, and at least two men high in government departments.

Senate Walsh, Montana, investigator, considers this the most important phase of the case he is building to prove "corruption and fraud" in connection with the leases on naval reserve oil lands which former Secretary of the Interior Fall gave to Harry F. Sinclair and Edward L Doheny.

Following up this line of inquiry, the committee met today to hear Samuel Ungerleider, Cleveland broker, who has offices in Washington. Although the plan was to conduct only a preliminary examination of Ungerleider, the committee desires to ascertain how it can find out exactly who bought and sold Mammoth Oil stock in Washington when the leases were made.

Fall has been notified to be on hand next Friday. The Senate is expected to pass on Thursday a resolution continuing the power of the investigating committee This will meet at least one objection of Fall who declined to testify at his last appearance. Steps will be taken to find him in contempt if he does not tell his story.

As soon as Harry Sinclair, lessee of Teapot Dome, returns from Europe, he will be subpoenaed before the committee. Carl P. Biggerman, of the Chase National Bank of New York, has been called to trace large transfers of cash Sinclair is said to have made to a Washington bank.

The accountants of the Federal Trade commission who are going over the books of Washington brokers probably will have a report ready in a few days They are attempting to ascertain names of those who speculated.

On Thursday the Senate will resume consideration of the Robinson resolution calling for resignation of Secretary of the Navy Denby, who signed both leases.

39 CALLS ANSWERED BY A DEPARTMENT

The Washington Fire department established a new record for the number of alarms answered during a single month, when it responded to 39 alarms during January. The former high record of 36 calls was made in March, 1922. A new record for the amount of large hose used was also made, the calls necessitating the laying of 7,100 feet of hose. Approximately 320 gallons of chemicals were also used to help quench the flames.

The property loss, which is estimated at $102,000 is the largest on record since the paid department was established The fire which practically destroyed the Rutherford garage, and the one which badly damaged the Church of the Immaculate Conception, account for $95,000 of this loss.

THIS WOMAN'S MARVELLOUS RECOVERY

All Due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Truman, Minn.—"I was badly rundown, had pains in my side and back; sometimes I could hardly move around in bed. My husband got me Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and after taking it I was so much better I could do all my work again I do my housework, have a garden, raise chickens, and in harvest time I worked in the field and helped pick corn. Sometimes I do chores and milk. I took the Vegetable Compound before and after my four-months-old baby was born, and it has always helped me wonderfully. I believe there is no better medicine made for women, and I hope every woman will give it a fair trial."—Mrs. AUGUST R. WIEDERHOFT, R. No. 2, Box 84, Truman, Minn.

Women suffering from troubles so common to their sex should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

The Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has relieved women of such troubles for the past fifty years. For sale by druggists everywhere.

MAN COVERS OVER 15,000 MILES WITH AN AUTOMOBILE

Harrisburg, February 5. — A remarkable automobile journey has just been completed by C. S. Daugherty, a prominent merchant of Dysart, Pa. During a period of ten and one-half months, Mr. Daugherty and his family, consisting of four adults and a ten-year-old boy, traveling in a six-cylinder, five passenger sedan and carrying a complete camping outfit, circled the United States, covering well over 15,000 miles.

"Not one bit of troubles, no blowouts and just five punctures on entire trip" writes Mr. Daugherty to the Pennsylvania Motor Federation, through which organization he obtained A. A. A. routings covering the entire trip.

One result of this remarkable journey is the tribute paid by Mr. Daugherty to the great Brotherhood of Motorists throughout the country by means of which many a rough spot was smoothed out and his path made easy "I want to inform you," he writes, "that my membership in the Pennsylvania Motor Federation (A [illegible] paid me many times what it cost."

From Dysart, Mr. Daugherty traveled to Florida; thence over the Old Spanish Trail to New Orleans, Houston, El Paso, Phoenix and across the desert to Mecca He had no trouble crossing the Great American Desert and continued on the Pacific Coast—the great scenic route through Los Angeles San Francisco, Portland and a side trip to Vancouver. Back to Portland, thence to the Dalles of the Columbia river, Walla Walla, Spokane, Butte (Montana), and taking in the Yellowstone Park Continuing on East he passed through St. Paul, Milwaukee, Chicago, Toledo, Cleveland, Buffalo Niagara Falls Erie Pa, and thence home.

One conclusion reached by Mr Daugherty as result of his observations is that [illegible] (road) system controlled through Township Supervisors is rotten—we have too much trouble to get our supervisors to keep our roads in passable condition."

—and now I use CALUMET

The Economy BAKING POWDER

"My bakings used to be a matter of 'hit or miss'—sometimes they were successful; then again a total failure, no matter how hard I tried. But that was before a friend persuaded me to try Calumet. Now I know what the result will be—what to expect every time—perfectly raised, uniformly baked foods. Bake day is really a delight."

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 ounces. Some baking powder, come in 12 oz. cans, instead of 16 ounce cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Baking Powder plays an important part in the success or failure of your baking. The great American housewives all realize this. They have found by experience that a better leavener is not, and cannot be made—that for nutritious and wholesome foods it has no equal.

Calumet is made in the World's largest baking powder factories: human hands never touch it.

$10,000 BLAZE IN MILLSBORO

Fire yesterday morning at 1 o'clock destroyed the grocery store, meat market, and garage of Parcine and Yank, Millsboro, doing damage estimated at between $7,500 and $10,000. The fire was discovered by a passerby who smelled smoke and investigated, finding the building on fire. He immediately turned in an alarm.

The East Bethlehem truck of Fredericktown rushed to the scene of the fire and although the firemen could not save the store building they saved nearby houses from being burned. The loss to the building and all the contents is completely covered by insurance. No theory as to the origin of the flames has been advanced.

COLORED RUFFIAN CUTS "KATSY" KEIFER

for a drink, and when he refused, an argument ensued. Pierce whipped a pen-knife from his pocket and suddenly reached over and slashed "Katsy" across the throat. Friends who were standing just outside the door quickly came to the aid of the injured man, and Pierce was placed under arrest by Washington police and is being held there pending "Katsy's" recovery.

Within 15 minutes Katsy was in the Emergency hospital, where he received 22 stitches. After a week in the hospital the physicians there entertained no hopes for his recovery, and "Katsy," wishing to be home, was brought here a week today.

Mr. Keifer was weakened through the loss of a large quantity of blood, and has had, altogether, 45 stitches put in the open gash in his throat, which fortunately did not sever his jugular vein. Dr. W. W. Schmid is the attending physician, and under his skillful care "Katsy" hopes to be able to mingle among his friends as soon as the nature of his wound will permit. "Katsy" will undoubtedly have to cancel his contract to play with the Eastern league, New Haven, which he was to have entered into on March 1. "Katsy" is a famous baseball player, having played professional ball for the past 14 years, with such wellknown teams as Wooster, Mass., Washington Americans, Indianapolis Federals and Pittsburgh Federals. He is a pitcher and appeared in that role for the Charleroi team against the Homestead Grays here last season.

His name appears on the official list of Marines with the maneuver forces in the Caribbean sea.

Alexander joined the Marine Corps at Pittsburgh last November, and is now with the Third Signal Batallion on the Island of Culebra. He will return to his regular station, Quantico, Va., when the maneuvers are over.

man, entered a plea of guilty to carrying concealed weapons and was sentenced to pay the costs, a fine of $50 and to serve ten days in jail. Coles, who was arrested by C. M. Schoen, chief of police of McDonald, said he had the gun for protection as he lived out at the Jumbo mines. He also exhibited a card of membership in a home guard organization of Pittsburgh which, he said, he was told gave him permission to carry a revolver.

William Dollman and America Chassis, miners employed by the Meadowlands Coal company at Avella, pleaded guilty to carrying concealed weapons and were each sentenced to pay costs, fine of $75 and to serve three months in the workhouse. If the fine and costs are paid they will get off with a month in jail. Dollman, a Kentucky negro, was caught in a raid on a poker joint and was sitting on his gun when the officers arrived.

OBJECT TO THE SUNDAY OLYMPICS

Paris (United Press).—Eric Ledder Scottish sprinter, has advised the Olympic Games Committee that he cannot compete in the 100 metres event because it is scheduled to be held on Sunday and it is against his principles to race on the Sabbath. Many other athletes will, it is believed, be influenced the same way, and already there is agitation by a section of the press to change the Sunday dates.
